1. INTRODUCTION

The objective of the Post-Secondary Student Support Program (PSSSP) is to enable affiliated First Nation members to gain access to post-secondary education and to graduate with the skills and competencies needed to pursue individual careers and to contribute to the advancement of First Nations self-governance and economic self-reliance.

The Fort McMurray #468 First Nation has adopted this policy and mandates the Education Director and Coordinator to follow the guidelines and procedures as written to ensure fair and objective decisions for all students.

This policy is effective January 12, 2021 and is subject to amendment from time to time based on changes to the post-secondary system and the needs of students.

2. ELIGIBILITY

Before the Fort McMurray #468 First Nation can provide sponsorship to students, the student must meet the Student Eligibility Criteria for the Student Support Program and/or the University and College Entrance Preparation Program (UCEPP).

Funding is not always guaranteed. Eligibility to be considered for funding does not guarantee that an individual will be approved to receive support. Funding approval is based on the following categories:

Fort McMurray #468 First Nation provides sponsorship under two main categories of programs: UCEPP and PSSSP.

UCEPP:

Students accessing the UCEPP program must identify what post-secondary program they are working toward.

PSSSP Programs:

There are four (4) levels of PSSSP programming depending on the type of credential achieved following completion of the program. Where new programs are introduced by institutions after normal deadlines for applications to the ATC for sponsorship, the Director of Education has the discretion to accept late applications for that particular program. The amount of funding available to students varies depending on both the type of program and the level of program.

Where two applicants are married to each other or are common-law and have dependents, one of them will be designated as a married/common-law student with dependents; the other will be designated as a single student.

Living allowance subsidies are direct deposited to student bank accounts normally three banking days prior to month end for the following month.

Each student must provide a personal void cheque or bank account information prior to the program start date for the direct deposit of living allowance subsidies.

Students without an active bank account will have their cheques mailed on the target deposit dates. No cheques will be couriered to students or deposited on their behalf by the Fort McMurray #468 First Nation.

Garnishee Orders

Any student required by law to pay maintenance support for their children must do so according to the court order. If this process is not followed and the garnishee order is issued to the Fort McMurray #468 First Nation, then the amount owed will be deducted from the student's monthly living allowances in accordance with the court order. Alternate banking arrangements to circumvent the garnishee order will not be permitted.

If the withdrawal is deemed to be for medical or compassionate reasons, the Education Coordinator will allow the student to reapply the following semester.

If the student withdraws from a program and there is no medical or compassionate reason, the student is required to reimburse the Fort McMurray #468 First Nation for tuition & fees, and book fees from which they withdrew. In addition, the student must wait until the following academic year to re-apply for educational support.

If the student withdraws for a second time and there is no medical or compassionate reason, they may be suspended indefinitely from future educational support.

If a student is found to have committed a fraudulent act against the Fort McMurray #468 First Nation, all assistance provided to the student will be terminated. - b) The appeal letter should be detailed in explaining the issue/problem with specific reference to the section of the Fort McMurray #468 First Nation Post-Secondary Education Policies & Procedures Manual that is disputed.
- c) A positive appeal outcome will not be granted if the student has proven to be negligent
- d) The Education Director will review the student's appeal letter and supporting documents.
